

2016 05 01 1918 Refugee Action Coalition Media Release
Day 43 of Nauru Protests

Four days after Omid's death in Brisbane, the protest continue on Nauru - the 43rd day of consecutive protests at the gates of the family camp.

Tonight (Sunday 1 May) there will also be a ceremony remembering Omid at the Anuijo refugee camp - the scene of the daily refugee protests that now join the family camp protests. The refugees and asylum seekers chanted: Dutton Dutton : Killer Killer; Transfield Transfield, No Business in Abuse; Omid Omid, rest in peace.

Refugees came from many camps and settlements - Nibok, iwa, Anibare, the single male camp, RPC2 and RPC 3 family camp - to Anuijo remember and pray for Omid (photos attached)
